POSTING TITLE: Senior Consultant – Just Transition & Climate Justice

LOCATION: Remote

DURATION: October 2021 – March 2022

POSITION SUMMARY – Senior Consultant – Just Transition & Climate Justice

The UN Global Compact is the world’s largest sustainability initiative with over 11,000 participating companies in 163 countries and 68 Local Networks around the world. It enables and supports companies across all sectors, geographies and sizes in their efforts to help meet the Sustainable Development Goals. Today, 75% of the companies that participate in the UN Global Compact have implemented activities to advance the SDGs.

The strategic ambition of the Global Compact is to accelerate and scale the global collective impact of business by upholding the Ten Principles and delivering the SDGs through accountable companies and ecosystems that enable change. The United Nations Global Compact is supported by the Foundation for the Global Compact, a U.S.-based non-profit that exists solely to provide vital financial, operational and programmatic assistance to the work of the UN Global Compact.

As countries translate their climate ambitions into policies, every sector of the economy must transition to net-zero emissions by 2050. This transition will result in new jobs emerging, some disappearing and others being fundamentally transformed. Ultimately, people, workers, enterprises and communities will find themselves in environmentally and socially more sustainable jobs, sectors and economies. However, this transition away from fossil fuels and towards renewables and net-zero emissions has to be a just transition for all.

The Foundation for the Global Compact is seeking a Senior Consultant for 6 months to help develop a programmatic track and a strategy within the UN Global Compact climate ambition portfolio on Just transition and Climate Justice.
