What a month it has been!

We kicked off International Women’s Month with an op-ed in the Financial Times by Sanda Ojiambo, CEO and Executive Director of the UN Global Compact, calling for a feminist approach to covid recovery.

We partnered with UN Women, IFC, Sustainable Stock Exchanges Initiative, World Federation of Stock Exchanges and Women in ETFs to Ring the Bell for Gender Equality in collaboration with more than 100 stock exchanges worldwide.

We convened TARGET GENDER EQUALITY LIVE during the Commission on the Status of Women, bringing together over 4,500 participants from more than 130 countries.

And finally, we announced the expansion of the Target Gender Equality accelerator programme to over 40 countries across all regions. Companies that are interested in participating in Round II of Target Gender Equality can now register. TGE representatives and Global Coalition members are also join our new Target Gender Equality LinkedIn Group.

There is no time to slow down and we need all hands on deck to keep the momentum going. Latest data in the Global Gender Gap Report 2021 the economic gender gap - a decade longer than estimated last year. As Target Gender Equality Round I nears its end, we look forward to continuing to work with each of you to raise the bar for gender equality!
At TARGET GENDER EQUALITY LIVE representatives from business, government, civil society and academia highlighted challenges and offered solutions to advancing gender equality. The UN Secretary-General shared his views “Gender equality is essentially a question of power. We live in a male dominated world with a male dominated culture in the public and private sector alike. The world needs the talent and perspectives of all women to solve our biggest challenges from rebuilding the global economy to fighting systemic racism to tackling climate change.”

The event featured a Mentorship Lounge organized in partnership with Vital Voices. Speakers including mentor-mentee pairs shared practical advice for how to make the most of mentorship experiences, break glass ceilings and lift up fellow women along the way. Sbu Myeni shared her personal story "I just never believed in my own voice. It really helped me to be able to stand up and speak for myself. In turn, it helped my kids to know that they too are vital voices." Browse the YouTube Playlist »

Many members of the Target Gender Equality Global Coalition organized cutting-edge sessions on themes such as equal pay, sexual harassment, sexual and reproductive health, the digital divide, inclusive procurement, legal barriers, the blue economy, women in science, human rights due diligence and disaster risk reduction. Participants also discussed the regional dimensions of barriers and solutions for women's empowerment in sessions jointly organized by Global Compact Local Networks across Latin America and the Middle East.
